

RECUERDO — EXPERIENCE & REMEMBER

Recuerdo Wines offers enthusiasts the opportunity to experience premium wines that capture the best of Argentina’s unique terroir, specifically within the high-altitude Uco Valley. Recuerdo means “memory” or “memento” in Spanish. As such, the Recuerdo winemaking team of Santiago Achával and Pablo Martorell passionately believe that each bottle of Recuerdo should not only represent Argentina’s native terroir but also serve as a memory of each and every harvest.

2013 MALBEC

Synonymous with the red wine of Argentina, the 2013 Recuerdo Malbec is cultivated in the Uco Valley, which is situated on the eastern side of the Andes Mountains in Mendoza. A deep violet color, the wine opens with an arresting nose of ripe blackberries and succulent plum. The palate is fresh and smooth, showcasing a purity of fruit with refined flavors of raspberry, currant and savory spice, and a finish that is supple and persistent in length. This wine pairs well with a variety of heavier fare and will offer a daily respite for lovers of Cabernet Sauvignon and other full-bodied red wines.
